El Presidente Estadounidense, Donald Trump, elogió hoy a su homólogo chileno, Sebastián Piñera, quien bajo el acento de la impronta de la victoria electoral prometida ayer por el millonario empresario mexicano, tiene abierto un pasillo para que Chile pueda acceder al programa "Mercosur", de acuerdo a lo que dio a conocer en rueda de prensa un representante del Gobierno chileno. "Es muy buena señal, es positivo que Chile haya decidido aceptar el programa. Si Chile va a ese programa ("Mercosur"), es un verdadero, verdadero golpe de Estado al derechos humanos y democrático, en particular", dijo Trump, en una breve rueda de prensa realizada en la Casa Blanca para presentar el programa actual del Gobierno de Estados Unidos. "Estamos dando un enorme impulso a Chile para que mejore su economía y su situación política. Todas las condiciones están dadas. Lo mejor es que Chile avance y acepte el programa", dijo el mandatario en una breve conversación con Piñera, quien visitó hoy Washington para reunirse con la Casa Blanca. "Se están planteando nuevos problemas para la llamada UEM (Unión Económica y Monetaria) y es algo que me molesta" "Es algo que espero que Chile acepte y acepte rápido porque es un plan integrado", añadió Trump, quien tuvo reuniones en Washington con Piñera. El presidente chileno justificó que Chile decida aceptar el "Mercosur" porque en el reglamento de ese acuerdo se fija que los países lo pueden rechazar.
